The Impeachers.

An exchange paper furnishes the follow ing as showing the status of members of Congress on the impeachment question. It ought to have been arranged as showing the black men, the whitemen, and the mulatoes, for there are three divisions in the body. The resolution was as follows:

Resolved, That Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, be impeached for high crimes and misdemeaners.

GLEASON'S LITERARY COMPANION. - This valuable Literary Weekly will commence n new volume January 1st, 1868, in grand style, with new type, and an entire new dress throughout. The "Literary Commiscellaneous Family Journal. Its literary department is filled with Original Tales of Home Amusements; Wit and Humor, etc., etc. An unrivalled corps of the best writers and artists have been engaged for the coming year, and every department will be placed on the most finished and perfect system that experience can devise or money produce .--Each number will be leautifully illustrated. In size the "Literary Companion" is some fifteen hundred square inches, forming a mammoth weekly of sixteen octavo pages, and making a volume of 832 pages each year, containing nearly twice as much reading matter and of a more refined character than any other weekly paper. . No money or pains will be spared in order to render "Gleason's Literary Companion" for 1868 subscriber, one year, $3; 4 subscribers, $10; 8 subscribers, one year, $20; and one gratis to the getter-up of a club of eight. Sample copies will be sent free by addressing F. Gleason, 40 Summer Screet, Boston, Mass.

cratic paper in the County that published the President's Message entire. The Gazette of Berwick, published a very liberal which Associations he was a worthy and resynopsis of it, while the Columbian, a special Johnson organ in this County, did not publish one line of the Message! The Republican paper of the County did better .-It contained two or three columns of the Message.

What's the matter with our down town cotemporaries? Has a new dream comeover them? Don't they see things as they once did? Democrats of the County desiring to read the Message call upon us for our paper where it is found in extenso.

The Alabama black and tan conventionists have determined to submit what they ridiculously call a constitution to the February, 1868, simultaneously with a ticket which they have put up for General Assembly, Congress, and State and County officers. The State and County officers are to assume control immediately after the "election," and the "legislature is to assemble on March 18. The vote on this was and local news. It is decidedly the best ayes 66, nays 13. The convention has not adjourned yet, and is not likely to, so long the State Capital. Barring its politics, it is as there is any money left in the Treasury.

The Black Republican editors hav ing Gen. Grant's name at the head of their columns, would gladly have the name removed since the General gave his testimony before the impeachment committee, if it were not that the whole country are watching their movements. Johnson has Tylerized that party, and Grant stands ready to Johnsonize them. Will they give him an opportunity?

[COMMUNICATED.]

CATAWISSA, Dec. 13, 1867. Min. EDITOR :- The Editor of the Republican mistakes the object of our last week's lecture. It was not him, but his premises, and conclusions that we attempted to controvert, and correct. We did vote for Chalfant, but did not know that he was "the Scoffer at Tomplarism, and the open cham-pion of Whisky," nor, that "Vanderslice was a friend and advocate of Temperance." was a friend and advocate of Temperance. We read carefully each issue of the Republican, the only paper in the County interested in his success, but found no such assertions before Election. Perhaps it was an oversight of the Editor for he must know that Temperance is a qualification that goes far toward influencing honest men in voting

We hope to be better informed at the next election, and trust that in the meantime, Editors and politicians, whose influence does so much to mold public opinion will decide to give open sympathy to truth, by using precept and example in favor of "total Abstinence," and "total Prohibition," the only principles that can save from moral ruin the institutions brought with blood.
What if it does "break up our party," or "yours." It is high time all parties were broken up and driven "headlong into the Sea," if they are sustained at a yearly sac-rifice of sixty thousand lives, a billion and a quarter of treasure, and untold suffering, both in earth and hell.

So let the curtain go up, and the performances proceed." A DEMOCRATIC TEMPLAR.

CASE OF MR. STANTON. The communication of the President in regard to the suspension of Mr. Stanton is before the Senate Military committee, the Chairman of which, Mr. Wilson, deserted his Black Republican friends at Richmond, and hastened back to the city to attend to it. The President's best friends consider the extreme cautiousness in the matter as wholly unnecessary, and exceedingly impolitie. There is no doubt that the Senate will disagree to the reasons assigned for the suspension of Mr. Stanton, and then under the tenure-of-office act, which the President seems to have recognized he (S.) will be

THE OLD GUARD, A Monthly Magazine, Devoted to Literature, Science and Art, and the Political Principles of 1776,

C. CHAUNCEY BURR, Editor.

In offering to the public the Prospectus of the Sixth Volume of THE OLD GUARD, the editor and publishers feel confident that no explanation of the character of the work is needed. Besides the political matter, of great importance, bearing upon the principles of the approaching Presidential Campaign, we shall publish a series of articles from the penor Van Evrie on the Paces of Men, which will be illustrated by beautiful plates of the different types of mankind. This new feature of the Magazine will greatly increase the cost of publication, but no additional price will be charged subscribers or news agents. We have also had translated expressly for this Magazine, one of the most thrilling popular historical novels ever published in the Italian language, covering the History of the Fall of the Italian States, under the horrible rule of Cæsar Borgia, Duke of Valentine, written by Monteverde, which will we are confident, excel in popular interest, any novel to be brought before the American robbit discipline the cast 1802. American public during the year 1868. Besides a thrilling love-plot, it unvails, with a pen of fire, the terrible arts and desperate deeds which tyranny always resorts to in fastening its miseries upon mankind. This great novel is most appropriately brought out in this country at the present time, and cannot fail to make a profound scusation. Other great literary novelties will appear in the Sixth Volume of THEOLD GUARD which will, it is believed, render it even more acceptable to the fireside than its pre-
